

1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO
34 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
56 Plaintiff,
78 v.
910 CRIMINAL:11-345 (DRD)
1112 [24] IVETTE ESCALERA-FUENTES,
1314 Defendant.
1516 MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
17 RE: RULE 11 PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)
1819 I. Procedural Background
2021 On September 8, 2011, a grand jury returned a six count indictment against [24] Ivette Escalera-
22 Fuentes (hereinafter referred to as "defendant") and other individuals. (Docket No. 3.) The defendant
23 has agreed to plead guilty to count one of the indictment. Count one charges that beginning on a date 24 unknown, but no later than in or about 2008, and continuing up to and until the return of the indictment, in the Municipality of Ceiba, in the District of Puerto Rico, elsewhere and within the jurisdiction of this court, [24] Ivette Escalera-Fuentes, did knowingly and intentionally, combine, conspire, and agree with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to possess with intent to distribute one (1) kilogram or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of heroin, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; two-hundred and eighty (280) grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine base ("crack"), a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; five (5) kilograms or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; a measurable amount of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of marijuana, a Schedule I Controlled Substance; a mixture or substance containing detectable amount of Oxycodone (commonly known as Percocet), a Schedule II Controlled Substance; and a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of Alprazolam (commonly known as Xanax), a Schedule IV Substance.

1 Controlled Substance, all within one thousand (1,000) feet of the real property comprising a housing
2 facility owned by a public housing authority, that is, the Jardines de Ceiba Public Housing Project and
3 other areas within the Municipality of Ceiba, Puerto Rico, all in violation of Title 21, United States
4 Code, Sections 846, 841(a)(1) and 860.

5 II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

6 On May 8, 2012, while assisted by counsel, the defendant, by consent, appeared before the 7 undersigned in order to change her previous not guilty plea to a plea of guilty as to count one of the 8 indictment. In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing being held and 9 was advised of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries were to be 10 conducted under oath and that it was expected that her answers would be truthful; (c) the potential
11 consequences of lying under oath (such as a perjury charge); and (d) her right to have the change of plea 12 proceedings presided by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was also 13 explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two. The defendant consented 14 to proceed before the undersigned magistrate judge.

15 III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

16 A. Rule 11(c)(1) Requirements

17 Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty
18 pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be 19 knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads 20 guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of 21 his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting 22 McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns 23 in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47
F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

24 United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

25 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

26 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of her rights, defendant was advised of her 27 right:
28

2 1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the government who has the 3 burden of proving her guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

4 2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no adverse inference could be made in relation 5 to her decision not to testify.

6 3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which she would be entitled to see
7 and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on her behalf, and challenge the 8 government's evidence.

9 4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which would have to be 10 convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means of admissible evidence.

11 5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

12 Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing her demeanor and her speaking with her
13 attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully understood her rights, it is determined 14 that defendant is aware of her constitutional rights.

15 C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

16 Upon advising defendant of her constitutional rights, she was further advised of the 17 consequences of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon 18 having her guilty plea accepted by the court, she will be giving up the above rights and will be convicted 19 solely on her statement that she is guilty.

20 In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and she understood that if convicted 21 on count one as charged she will face not more than twice the following penalties: a term of 22 imprisonment of not less than ten (10) years or more than life, a fine not to exceed $10,000,000.00, and 23 a term of supervised release of at least five (5) years. However, if the court accepts the defendant's
24 guilty plea and if the court accepts the amount of narcotics stipulated by the parties in the plea
25 agreement, that is at least five hundred (500) grams but less than two (2) kilograms of cocaine, the 26 penalty for the offense shall be not more than twice the following: a term of imprisonment of not less
27

2 than five (5) years and not more than forty (40) years, a fine not to exceed $5,000,000.00, and a term
3 of supervised release of at least four (4) years.

4 The defendant was explained what the supervised release term means and was also made aware
5 that the court must impose a mandatory penalty assessment of one hundred dollars ($100) per offense
6 pursuant Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a).

7 The defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the court to decide
8 in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term and fine were to be imposed upon her,
9 she later could not withdraw her guilty plea for that reason alone. Furthermore, the defendant was 10 admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty she would not be allowed later on to withdraw her plea
11 because she eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed, and that if she violates the conditions
12 of supervised release, that privilege could be revoked and she could be required to serve an additional 13 term of imprisonment. She was also explained that parole has been abolished. The defendant 14 understood this.

15 D. Plea Agreement¹

16 The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed by the 17 government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the record. Defendant was 18 clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

- 19 1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court.
- 20 2. The plea agreement is an agreement between the defendant, defense counsel and the attorney
21 for the government which is presented as a recommendation to the court in regards to the applicable 22 sentencing adjustments and guidelines, which are advisory.
- 23 3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated sentencing 24 guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the sentencing court.

27

28

“Plea agreement” refers to the agreement and its supplement.

2 4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation contained therein, the 3 sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea agreement and impose any sentence up to the 4 maximum possible penalty prescribed by statute.

5 Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

6 E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

7 The government presented a proffer of its evidence consistent with the version of facts of the plea
8 agreement with which the defendant concurred. Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact 9 and evidence to establish all the elements of the offense charged.

10 F. Voluntariness

11 The defendant accepted that no threats had been made to induce her to plead guilty and that she 12 did not feel pressured to plead guilty.

13 G. Waiver of Appeal

14 The defendant was explained, and she understood, that if the court accepts the plea agreement
15 and sentences her according to its terms and conditions, she will be surrendering her right to appeal the 16 sentence and judgment in this case.

17 IV. Conclusion

18 The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, Federal Rules of 19 Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to count one of the indictment. After cautioning
20 and examining the defendant under oath and in open court, concerning each of the subject matters
21 mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the preceding sections, I find that defendant is competent to enter
22 this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the maximum statutory penalties that 23 the same carries, understands that the charge is supported by the government's evidence, has admitted
24 to every element of the offense charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full 25 knowledge of the consequences of her guilty plea. Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the 26 guilty plea of the defendant and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to count one of the indictment.

3 This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B). Any objections
4 to the same must be specific and must be filed with the Clerk of Court within fourteen (14) days of its 5 receipt. Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). Failure to timely file specific objections to the report and 6 recommendation is a waiver of the right to review by the district court. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F.2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).

7 SO RECOMMENDED.

8 At San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 10th day of May, 2012.
